

Request of Participation in Neighborhood Association, CHONAIKAI

Local Society Leaders' Association, RENKUCHOKAI, in Toyokawa
City of Toyokawa

City of Toyokawa asks for participating in neighborhood association, CHONAIKAI, to a person who has moved into Toyokawa or a person who lives in Toyokawa without participating in a neighborhood association. This neighborhood association, CHONAIKAI, is conducted by a resident organization of people who live in the same area.

Recently, here in Toyokawa, the number of crimes and accidents is increasing. The ties in the community are pretty important to live safely in peace of mind. Also in case of earthquakes, such as TOKAI earthquake, cooperating with neighbors and CHONAIKAI is absolutely imperative.

Now, there are 186 CHONAIKAIs in Toyokawa and they conduct various local activities, such as residents exchange activities, managing GOMI STATION, activities of KODOMOKAI and Senior Citizen's Club, physical activities, crime prevention and disaster prevention activities. Through these activities, the residents make their ties much stronger and it creates the peace and safe community.

We recommend that you participate in CHONAIKAI to deepen the neighborhood relationship.

To register a CHONAIKAI, fill in the registration form, then submit it to a member of CHONAIKAI, such as a chairperson of CHONAIKAI, CHONAI KAICHO.

If you do not know what is your Neighborhood Association, CHONAIKAI, or who is the Chairperson, CHONAI KAICHO, please contact International and Civic Activity Division, SHIMIN KYODO KOKUSAI KA, at Toyokawa City Hall.
