

What is "Kogitsune-Kyoshitsu"?

"Kogitsune-Kyoshitsu" supports the foreign children, who stop going to school because of lack of Japanese, to learn Japanese and helps the children to go or return to public school. It launched in 2010 as the place for foreign children to learn not only Japanese but also the culture and its custom. The children can also acquire the habit of studying.

Kogitsune-Kyoshitsu

【Contact】

Toyokawa International and Civic Activity Division

1-1 Suwa Toyokawa Aichi, Japan

〒442-8601

TEL 0533-89-2158

FAX 0533-95-0010

Email: kyodokokusai@city.toyokawa.lg.jp

Toyokawa

英語

Kogitsune-Kyoshitsu

Introduction of Kogitsune-Kyoshitsu

Date: Monday-Thursday
(Except Year-end and New Year's Holidays, and National Holidays)

Time: 2:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Place: Prio Building 5F
Kogitsune-Kyoshitsu

Tuition: Free
940 yen / year is required as the insurance fee

Eligible Children:

School-age children who have some difficulties in Japanese. Each child and its guardian have to have an interview with the staff before the entrance.

Subjects: Japanese language

Period: 6 months (in principle)

It is possible to come to "Kogitsune-Kyoshitsu" after entering school, if it's necessary.

◆In the class

◆Children are singing a Japanese song

◆Foreign children, aged 6 to 15, go to the class in the present. Each child can study Japanese in its appropriate level.

◆Outdoor activity: harvesting sweet potatoes

◆Outdoor activity: litter cleanup activity

◆Address of Kogitsune-Kyoshitsu

3-300 Suwa-cho, Prio Bldg. 5F,
Toyokawa
〒442-0068